

Heart Disease Analysis

Healthcare Manager / Cardiologist

 Empathy:	 Hear	 See	 Say	 Do	 Gains
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Need accurate and early detection of heart disease risk.• Concerned about delayed diagnosis and patient safety.• Want simple and clear visual reports for quick clinical decisions.• Need to reduce manual data analysis effort.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• From hospital management. "Improve patient outcomes and reduce readmission rates."• From patients: "We want faster and more accurate reports"• From data team: Large datasets are difficult to interpret manually."	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple patient records in different formats.• Increasing number of heart disease cases.• Time-consuming traditional reporting systems.• Lack of integrated real-time dashboards.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• "We need a system that shows the risk levels instantly."• Visual dashboards will help in faster diagnosis.• We must track key health indicators efficiently.• Data-driven decisions improve treatment planning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyze patient data (age, cholesterol, BP, ECG, etc.).• Compare historical and current health trends.• Monitor high-risk patients.• Generate reports for clinical review.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Real-time heart disease risk prediction dashboard.• Faster and more accurate clinical decisions.• Improved patient monitoring and treatment planning.• Reduced workload with automated insights.
 Pain Points	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Manual and slow data processing.• Difficulty in identifying high-risk patients quickly.• Scattered and unstructured.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Difficulty in identifying high-risk patients quickly.• Scattered and unstructured healthcare data.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Scattered and unstructured healthcare data.• Limited technical expertise among medical staff.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyze patient data (age, cholesterol, BP, ECG, etc.).• Compare historical and current health trends.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Real-time heart disease risk prediction dashboard.• Faster and more accurate clinical decisions.

